REPORT ON THE SEMINAR

Title: Importance of Good Laboratory Practice in Pharmaceutical Research

Date: 23.07.2020

Resource Person: Mr. M. KOODALINGAM, B.Pharm.,

Event Coordinator: Ms. M. Revathi, M. Pharm.,

Total Participant(s): 92

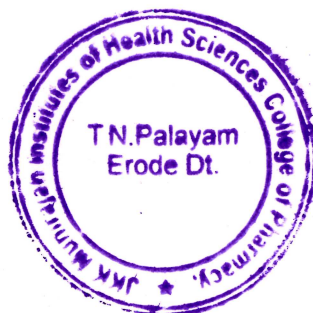

Event Description:

The "Importance of Good Laboratory Practice in Pharmaceutical Research" event, held on 23.07.2020, was a pivotal gathering dedicated to emphasizing the critical role of Good Laboratory Practice (GLP) in pharmaceutical research. This comprehensive program united researchers, scientists, and pharmaceutical professionals committed to upholding the highest standards of laboratory practice. Attendees, eager to understand the significance of GLP, benefited from a comprehensive program led by seasoned experts.

Program Outcome:

The program delivered several significant outcomes. Participants left with a deepened appreciation for the importance of GLP in ensuring the integrity, reliability, and regulatory compliance of pharmaceutical research. The insights shared by expert presenters provided practical guidance on implementing and maintaining GLP principles within laboratory settings. Furthermore, the event fostered networking and collaboration, forging connections that may lead to future advancements in research methodologies and quality assurance in pharmaceutical research. In summary, the "Importance of Good Laboratory Practice in Pharmaceutical Research" event left an enduring impact, empowering attendees with the knowledge and dedication to uphold the highest standards of laboratory practice in their pursuit of scientific excellence.
