REPORT ON THE SEMINAR

Title: Patenting Natural Products and Biomolecules

Date: 18.04.2022

Resource Person: DR. K. SELVARAJU, M. Pharm., Ph. D.,

Event Coordinator: DR. S. Selvaraj, M. Pharm., Ph. D.,

Total Participant(s): 103

Event Description:

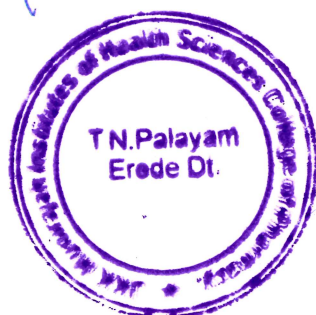

The "Patenting Natural Products and Biomolecules" event, held on 18.04.2022, served as a crucial gathering dedicated to unravelling the intricacies of patenting within the realms of natural products and biomolecules. This enlightening program united professionals, researchers, and enthusiasts committed to safeguarding and leveraging intellectual property rights in the field of life sciences. Attendees, eager to explore the complexities of patenting in this specialized area, benefited from a comprehensive program led by seasoned experts.

Program Outcome:

The program achieved several remarkable outcomes. Participants left with an enriched understanding of the patenting landscape for natural products and biomolecules, equipped with knowledge and strategies to protect and harness innovations effectively. The insights shared by expert presenters provided practical guidance on navigating patent applications, licensing, and innovation in this specialized field. Furthermore, the program fostered networking and collaboration, forging connections that may lead to future advancements, partnerships, and innovations within life sciences. In summary, the "Patenting Natural Products and Biomolecules" event left an enduring impact, empowering attendees with the knowledge and inspiration to excel in the dynamic intersection of science, innovation, and intellectual property protection in the realm of natural products and biomolecules.
